

What do you do when your HOT werewolf bodyguard falls in love with you? Marry him?? Catch this exciting finale of The Werewolf Bodyguard series! Taylor pulled her knees into her chest and smiled. "What was it?" Namir stood. His legs felt like jelly. "I think it better that I just show you." Taylor's smile faded as he took his shirt off and walked into the trees. Muscle rippled with his movement, and she tried to concentrate on what he was going to show her, instead of how his bare chest and back made her feel. She heard his voice call to her softly. "Close your eyes, Taylor." She could hear him moving around, and thought he was removing the rest of his clothes. Weird. She thought, but closed her eyes like he asked. The forest stilled. The birds that had been chirping fell silent, and the squirrels were not scampering about any longer. The breeze no longer stirred. Taylor heard strange noises like something being stretched and pulled, and she was sure that a guttural moan echoed somewhere nearby. Her heart began thumping loudly in her ears, and her breath was coming short and shallow. Something was walking towards her. "Namir?" She called, her voice shaky. She was too afraid to open her eyes. Something soft, then wet, touched the side of her face. She jumped and scrambled backwards, her eyes flying open. Taylor gasped for air and stood as she beheld the creature before her. Soft brown fur covered ninety percent of a man like body. The feet were huge as were the hands, and long claws stretched from the ends of each finger. A scream built in Taylor's throat as her chest heaved in anticipation. The creature stepped towards her, and she saw its eyes. Namir's eyes. For fans of Ariana Hawkes and Terry Bolryder!
