

This antique volume contains a practical and progressive method of book-keeping for self-instruction, high schools, and commercial colleges, compiled by The Brothers of the Sacred Heart. The method offered with this guide is the result of many years labour in the classroom. The explanations are short and clear, and within the comprehension of all. Difficult transactions are explained at length, and accompanied by helpful exercises. The chapters of this book include: Pay Book, Journal, Ledger; Promissory Notes and Checks; Checks; Negotiable Paper; Interest and Discount; Real Estate; Non-negotiable Paper; Book, Letter Book, and Bill Book; Partnership; Shipments and Consignments; Equation of Payments, Averaging Accounts; etcetera. This book was first published in 1895, and we are proud to republish it now, complete with a new introduction on the subject.
