

A reorganization of the sefer Mishna Berurah (Vol. 5-6) for the purpose of simplifying its review. Chazarah can be very difficult in the Mishna Berurah and the Shulchan Aruch. One of the issues that can be most vexing is the order, since the order of the chazarah affects how well it will be remembered, and many times the Mishna Berurah will discuss similar cases to the Shulchan Aruch before the current case is complete. Other times a definition or explanation necessary for understanding the Shulchan Aruch is hard to locate. Therefore a system has been developed to arrange the different halachos in the most logical order, with the goal of making the review of the Mishna Berurah less complicated. An additional goal is to organize the Biur Halacha and Shaar Hatzion, so that their main points are incorporated as part of the Mishna Berurah, inserted where the Mishna Berurah discusses them. Thirdly, to create a flowing reading that doesn't require constant looking in and out of the Shulchan Aruch. In order to enable the reader to know the source of each halacha (ie: Mechaber/Rama/Mishna Berurah/Biur Halacha or Shaar Hatzion) each source is written in a slightly different font and/or size. There is a key at the bottom of each page, which makes this system clear and easy to follow. All of this combined, creates a powerful tool for reviewing and retaining the Mishna Berurah with clarity.
