Not illustrated. 1896 Excerpt: ...day?--A. No, sir. Q. What was the conduct of the election there at the Fourth Ward that day, both as to fairness, quiet, and absolute freedom from intimidation of any man desiring to vote as he pleased?--A. I saw nothing at all during the day otherwise than fair and square. Q. Would you have seen it if it had been there?--A. Yes, sir. Q. I understood you to say positively that you were in a position to see anything that occurred on the sidewalk, and that you did not see negroes come from the polls and change their coats and hats?--A. I did not see anything of that sort. I was in a position to see both in front of the polls and on the sidewalk. Q. You did not see any negroes come from the polls in squads and change their coats and hats?--A. No, sir; I did not. Q. And if it had been done you say you would have seen it?--A. Yes, sir. Q. Were any complaints lodged with you by anybody at all that day as to any objection any party might have as to the manner in which the election was being conducted?--A. No, sir. Q. You heard of no one making any complaint to you or to any other officer?--A. No, sir. Q. (By Boyeix Whight, esq.) Mr. Cartledge and Mr. Williams, and perhaps others whom I do not remember, said something about seeing a squad of ten or more go in through the approach and toward the ballot box, and then come right out and on around again through the approach up to the ballot box again, and that occurred more than once with the same squad. I will ask you now if anything of that kind occurred?--A. No, sir. Q. If it had occurred, would you, or not, have been in a position to have seen it, and would you have seen it?--A. I think I would have seen it. Cross-examination by B. M. Gross, Esq.: Q. How long have you been on the police force?--A. About five years....
