

Mercy O'Reilly's destiny is to create and perform music like her father, heavy metal rocker The Griffin. The only problem is she can't. Her mother, a Griffin groupie who got on the bus fifteen years ago and came out with Mercy, complicates Mercy's life because it seems like Jane never grew up and Mercy has to be the grownup. Mercy plots to drop out of school and live with The Griffin in Houston, but when he stops taking her calls and everyone discourages her plans, she has to face some painful truths.
