And the church is to submit to Christ's authority in everything (Ephesians ). So Christians should treat their bosses the same way Christ would treat those. However, we need to make one thing perfectly clear up front: no where does scripture support the notion that it is sinful or even poor witness for a Christian boss. Paul says that all our work should be done as work for Christ, not for any human supervisor. With good will render service as to the Lord and. So, the main point to take from this is that God expects workers to submit to the authority of their bosses as if to Christ! Now let's look at God's. If you've been in the business world very long, it's likely you've run into a manager who just wasn't doing the job right. We need to know biblical principles in.
