

Learning to Flow is a story of spiritual enlightenment and empowerment as shared by Certified Spiritual Life Coach, Jeffrey L. Scholl. In his first book, he explores his health and relationship struggles and how he learned to heal his pain through the application of spiritual principles. This book explores the Law of Attraction from a different perspective; how we unconsciously attract undesired situations via our repressed emotional energies. Learning to Flow explores the world of the unconscious mind through the perspective of someone who has made this difficult journey. This book serves as a guide for all spiritual seekers and as a call to awakening for any who have not yet understood the power of their emotions and the messages they bring.
