

Hi, this is Michael Senoff with HardtoFindSeminars.com. Here's a recording I titled, "How to Get the Money You Need Fast For Your Business When the Bank Says No." If you're a small or medium sized company requiring financing for growth, acquisition or turnaround, this interview with Barry will open your eyes to some new possibilities. In this interview, you'll hear how Barry has carved a special niche in the financial industry. While many banks will not or can not help a business to grow a business by assisting in the acquisition of another company, or assisting in the turnaround of a business who is experiencing financial difficulty due to some circumstances, these banks will send them to Barry and his team. In this interview, Barry gives you an in-depth explanation of each of their services along with example case studies of successes where they acted as the intermediary to the process. Their ability to structure and arrange financing that facilitates the achievement of their clients' goals has created strong relationship within the financing community. This allows Barry to deal directly with the decision makers of lending institutions. This is a fascinating new approach that will broaden your knowledge of the requirements necessary to engage a person with connections like Barry to help you achieve your desired personal growth. The bottom line is this, if you need money for your business, and you've been turned down by banks and other traditional lending avenues, you need to hear this recording. Barry is one stop shopping to help you get the money you need, to facilitate acquisition or to facilitate capital to grow your enterprise. Enjoy!
