

Iâ€™m not the good girl you thought I was. I was there the night June died. We all were. I saw her body sprawled out in a pool of blood. I saw her too-still chest and I knew she would never breathe again. Only I wasnâ€™t thinking about her while we hid in the dark, trying not to scream. I was thinking about him. I was thinking about my boyfriend, Jackson. No, youâ€™ve never met him. And no, he doesnâ€™t exactly have a perfect past. Heâ€™s nothing like the squeaky-clean church boys Iâ€™ve dated all my life. Maybe thatâ€™s what I like about him. Maybe Iâ€™m sick of all the pretending. But that doesnâ€™t make me a murderer. Yes, Iâ€™ve done a lot of things you might think were wrong. Iâ€™ve cheated. Iâ€™ve lied. Iâ€™ve tasted the apple and Iâ€™m never going back. This isnâ€™t some sort of come-to-Jesus story. Iâ€™m no good girl. Not anymore. Not ever again. But Iâ€™m not the devil either.
