

Ill I it SPEECH, &c.. Mr. Mayor, and Gentlemen, Am extremely pleafed at the appearance of this large and refpeAtable meeting. The ftepsl may be obliged to take will want the ianAation of a conliderable authority; and in explaining any thing which may appear doubtful in my public conduct, I muilz naturally delire a very full audience. I have been backward to begin my canvais. The dillblution ofthe Parliament was uncertain ;and it did not. become me, by an unfeafonable importunity, to appear difiident of the eHeat of my ix years endeavours to pleafe you. I had ferved the city of Briitol honourably; and the city of Briitol had no reafon to think, that the means of honourable fervice to the public, were become indifferent to me. I found on my arrival here, that three gentlemen had been long in eager purfuit of an object which but two of us can obtain. I found, that they had all met with encouragement. A teonteiiid election in fuch a city as this, is no light thing. I paufed on thebx-ink of the precipice. Thefe three gentlemen, by various B. merits, %L iza &A4 6a!& T34f J47 7- A ylla JVM nAr4,A;.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
