

If you think that you know Pembrokeshire, think again. This county is alive with incredible historical facts, myths and legends. From prehistoric drowned forests, to Iron Age Forts, and Bronze Age burial chambers, from Viking pillagers to Norman invasions, there are centuries of stories and information to amaze and fascinate visitors and locals alike. The Pembrokeshire Guide is the only annually published, retailed and comprehensive Guide Book for the county. Our 2016 edition is over 200 pages of useful guides, maps and information for the county. It is always a great pleasure to welcome visitors to Pembrokeshire and we sincerely hope that this guide will help you get the most out of your holiday. Sections contained within the guide include Beach Guides, Attractions, Where to Eat, Maps, Sports & Leisure and many more.
