

This is an updated edition of the annual guide to your tax position, written by tax experts at Ernst and Young, and designed to help you plan your tax affairs more efficiently. It is designed to provide you with all the information, complete with worked examples, to help you fill out your self-assessment tax form. In addition, the book features essential information on other areas of personal finance, such as VAT, personal pensions, inheritance tax and capital gains tax. There is also a section highlighting the key features of the 2002 Budget.
