

Using humor to deflect confusion and madness, from the swagger of youth to the stagger of age. Carol offers a look behind the curtain to view the darkest mysteries of life, with a twist. She courageously and candidly reveals personal failures, the woes of maintaining an aging body, the effects of driving with children, to finding the perfect bra. Edgy, funny, scary, and entertaining, this is the book to give to the unsuspecting bride-to-be, a new mother, and finally to any woman entering her golden years.
